LOCATION

The premises are situated on Mathew Street at its junction with Rainford Square within Liverpool City Centre. The immediate surrounding area consists of a variety of cafés, restaurants, and bar. The area is also within walking distance of Liverpool ONE, a premier shopping and leisure destination, providing access to retail outlets, dining options, and entertainment venues.

Mathew Street is ideally positioned to benefit from excellent transport links, with Liverpool Lime Street and Moorfields train stations both within easy walking distance, providing regular services across the city and beyond. The property also enjoys close proximity to major road networks, including the M62, which connects Liverpool to the national motorway system,

In addition to its proximity to transport hubs and local amenities, Mathew Street is steeped in cultural significance, famously known as the home of the Cavern Club. The area's blend of historic charm and modern convenience makes these premises an attractive choice for an engaging working environment.
